

HOME IS WHERE THE HEART IS

- Step 1: Look at the 7th Cavalry Officers in the left-hand column and note the state in which they were born.
- Step 2: In the right-hand column, under each state, write the names of the officers born in that state.
- Step 3: Answer the three questions at the bottom of the page.

Lieutenant Colonel George Custer (OH)	Connecticut
Major Joel Elliott (IN)	Indiana
Captain Albert Barnitz (PA)	Iowa
Captain Frederick Benteen (VA)	Massachusetts
Captain Louis Hamilton (NY)	New Jersey
Captain Edward Myers (Germany)	New York
Captain William Thompson (PA)
Captain Thomas Weir (OH)
Captain Robert West (NJ)
Captain George Yates (NY)
1 st Lieutenant James Bell (PA)
1 st Lieutenant Matthew Berry (Ireland)
1 st Lieutenant Charles Brewster (NY)
1 st Lieutenant William Cook (Canada)
1 st Lieutenant Edward Godfrey (OH)	Ohio
1 st Lieutenant Francis Gibson (PA)
1 st Lieutenant Owen Hale (NY)	Pennsylvania
1 st Lieutenant John Johnson (IA)
1 st Lieutenant Edward Law (PA)
1 st Lieutenant Myles Moylan (MA)
1 st Lieutenant Samuel Robbins (NY)	Vermont
1 st Lieutenant Algernon Smith (NY)
1 st Lieutenant Henry W. Smith (CT)	Virginia
1 st Lieutenant David Wallingford (VT)

1. Which state was home to the most officers? _____
2. Which state was home to the second most officers? _____
3. Which three officers were not born in the U.S.? _____, _____, _____

Answer Key: 1. New York 2. Pennsylvania 3. Lieutenant Matthew Berry, Lieutenant William Cook, Captain Edward Myers
